April 24, 2020 - Roadmap to Recovery: Yolo County Issues New Health Order and Amendment to Shelter In Place

(Woodland, CA) – Yolo County has two new announcements today; a new health order that requires wearing a face covering in public and an amendment to the current Shelter in Place order that now allows certain activities to resume. The new health order in Yolo County requires anyone working at or visiting an essential business, such as a grocery store or gas station, to wear face coverings to help reduce the spread of COVID-19.

Additionally, Yolo County is adding an amendment to the current Shelter in Place order allowing select community activities to resume that have been assessed to be low-risk for the spread of COVID-19. The following activities will now be allowed effective immediately, as long all activities adhere to social distancing, face covering guidance (if applicable), and good hygiene practices:

- Golf Courses
- Gun/Hunting Clubs/Archery
- Boat Ramps
- Fishing

Each of these activities are not strictly prohibited by the State Order.
