

Press Release – Personal Care Services to Resume in Yolo County June 19th

PRESS RELEASE

June 18, 2020 - Personal Care Services to Resume In Yolo County June 19th

(Woodland, CA) – Effective Friday, June 19, Yolo County will begin allowing personal care services, as outlined in the State of California’s guidance and June 12th announcement, to resume operations while also following strict social distancing requirements and the mandatory use of face coverings in accordance with local health orders.

Most of the recently confirmed cases in Yolo County have been due to social/family gatherings, some workplace exposures, and travel to other counties, states, or countries. There has not yet been evidence of transmission in Yolo County related to recently reopened activities, and given this current information, the County will allow personal services to resume as stated by the State.

The following activities are allowed to resume effective June 19 under ‘Personal Services’ as long as they 1) follow State and/or County guidance, 2) adhere to the County’s face covering order; 3) comply with strict social distancing protocols:

- Skin care and cosmetology services
- Electrolysis
- Nail salons
- Body art, tattoo parlors and piercing shops
- Massage

In addition, Yolo County has made some changes to local activities, including:

- Approving youth sport’s training and practices though no games or tournaments are allowed at this time.

- Not allowing groups larger than 100 people to gather outside for religious services.
- Creating new local guidance for face coverings during fitness activities at gyms and fitness centers.

For more information, including local guidance changes and documents, visit: www.yolocounty.org/coronavirus-roadmap. Residents can also call Yolo 2-1-1 for resource information.
