Virtual Meetings and Classes: The Woodland Senior Center is operating certain programs during the shelter-in-place orders. Three support groups are meeting virtually, including Multiple Sclerosis, Parkinson's disease, Transitions (for people going through major life changes), and Prostate Cancer. Next, one of the City's contract recreation instructors is hosting daily virtual exercise sessions (Functional Fitness, Seated Mobility, and Rock Steady Boxing). Additionally, the Woodland Senior Center Inc. board meets virtually every month. To request more information, call the Senior Center Welcome Desk line at (530) 661-2001; there will be updated messages to point people to these program offerings.

Yolo County Great Plates Program: This emergency meal program provides 3 delivered meals per day to qualifying seniors who cannot prepare or procure their own food during the shelter in place. This program has been extended until July 10, 2020. The program is open to seniors who are not on Meals on Wheels or CalFresh. There are other program requirements including income and living alone. To apply quickly and easily over the phone call 211. A 211 operator will assist you in submit an application over the phone."

YOLO 211: Yolo 211 provides a database of resources and links to health and human services online for programs and resources that meet your needs. Call 2-1-1 from your phone or log on to: <http://www.211sacramento.org/211/2-1-1-yolo-county>

The Friendship Line. Phone: 800-971-0016, email: friendshipline@ioaging.org - a “warm” line for routine phone calls, for emotional support and well-being check-ins. Also a crisis line.

Well Connected. Phone: 877-797-7299, website: <https://covia.org/services/well-connected> - a free phone line and online program offering activities, education and connection.

Next City Council Meeting

The next City Council meeting will be on July 7. The meeting will be held via teleconference and Council members and the public will participate via teleconference. Those locations are not listed on the agenda and are not accessible to the public.

The public is encouraged to listen to the City Council meeting live on Woodland TV Channel 20 and also by viewing the Upcoming Meetings on the City webpage (when the meeting is Live, you will see a Live icon to the left of the meeting).

If you wish to make a comment during general public comment or on a specific agenda item, there are three (3) ways to do that: 1) Join the Zoom City Council meeting by clicking on the link below for instructions; 2) Leave a voice mail message at (530) 661-5900. All voice mail messages received by 6:00 p.m. will be played during the City Council meeting and read into the record at the appropriate time; and 3) If you are watching the live stream and wish to make a comment on an item as it is being heard you may submit an email to the City Clerk at CouncilMeetings@cityofwoodland.org prior to Public Comment on that item. Email comments submitted to be read into the record shall be no more than three (3) minutes when read aloud. Please include the agenda item in the subject line.
