Items to note

Volunteer Appreciation Dinner – August 11

The annual Volunteer Appreciation Dinner was held on August 11 and was a huge success. The themed dinner A Walk on the Wild Side featured a tri tip dinner barbecued by the Elks Lodge. Senior Center Inc. prepared the rest of the dinner for the 150 in attendance for the dinner, including Vice Mayor Davies. Target and the Californian sent volunteers to help serve food and to make drinks. A huge thank you goes out to all of the volunteers who helped to decorate and to make the evening memorable. The Outstanding Volunteer awards were awareded to the following for 2011: Homer Swigert, Stan Moorhead, Katie Brown, Rita Eisenstat, Judy Evans, Jan Putnam, Lillian Toyoma, and Maxine Polkinhorne.

Blood Pressure Clinic - cancelled

The Blood Pressure Clinic participation has been dismal in the last year, even with trying to move the clinic into the lunch room. The volunteers felt it was as if they were having to force people get their blood pressure reading. With so many options around town, it was decided to close the blood pressure clinic until further notice.

Trying new games

A few participants have been anxious for new games throughout the week. Some have been trying new games out including dominoes and alternative card games. We haven't gotten any lead volunteers or a specific day yet, this was started to gain interest in new games at the Senior Center.

New Volunteers

Recruitment for new volunteers is ongoing and is hard work. Recently, we have been blessed with new faces to the Senior Center, several who never really came out to the Senior Center before. We are welcoming the new faces and hope they can stay around for awhile.

Computer Club

Hosted Dave Edwards from the Yolo County District Attorney's office to present to the Computer Club about Senior Fraud and online fraud.

Elderly Nutrition

Christina is really trying to increase the attendance for the daily congregate lunches. For the week of August 8-12, Christina was enthusiastic to engage the congregate lunch crowd. She had a specific theme for each day, trying to have the seniors show their "spirit". For each day if a senior showed up with the appropriate spirited item (crazy socks, sports apparel, a hat), their name was placed in a drawing for prize each day.

Woodland Senior Outreach

Last meeting in June had the Yolo County Adult Protective Services make a presentation about the processes, reporting, and what typically happens on a case.

Yolo County Healthy Aging Alliance (a subcommittee of the YC COA)

Missed July meeting.
