REPORT TO MAYOR AND CITY COUNCIL

AGENDA ITEM

TO: THE HONORABLE MAYOR
AND CITY COUNCIL

DATE: May 4, 2010

SUBJECT: Proclamation of Recognition and Appreciation - National Police Week

Report in Brief

The City Council is asked to proclaim May 9-15, 2010 as National Police Week, and May 15, 2010, as Peace Officers' Memorial Day in Woodland to honor the men and women whose diligence and professionalism keep our community and citizens safe.

Staff recommends that the City Council proclaim May 9-15, 2010 as National Police Week, and May 15, 2010, as Peace Officers' Memorial Day.

Background

In 1962, President John F. Kennedy signed Public Law 87-726 designating May 15 each year as Peace Officers' Memorial Day, in honor of the Federal, State, and Municipal officers who have been killed or disabled in the line of duty; and the week in which May 15 falls as National Police Week, in recognition of the service given by the men and women who, night and day, stand guard in our midst to protect us through enforcement of our laws. The law was amended by the Violent Crime Control and Law Enforcement Act of 1994, Public Law 103-322, signed by President Bill Clinton, directing that the flag of the United States be displayed at half-staff on all government buildings on May 15 each year. While the actual dates change from year to year, National Police Week is always the calendar week, beginning on Sunday, which includes May 15.

Though enacted in 1962, it was not until May 15, 1982, that the first National Peace Officers' Memorial Day service was held. The Joint Resolution was enacted in recognition of the police officers of our country who work devotedly and selflessly on behalf of the people of the United States, regardless of the peril to themselves. These officers safeguard the lives and property of their fellow Americans by the enforcement of our laws. These men and women, by their patriotic service and dedicated efforts, deserve, and have earned, the gratitude of the Nation.
